

Australian Walkingstick

Extraosoma tiatatum

Australian Walking StickFun Facts!Extraosoma tiatum*

When threatened, they may release an odor with the scent of peanut butter or vinegar!

Nymphs can mimic ants to escape the forest floor and avoid predators!

One female can lay up to 200 eggs in just a few months!

Adults camouflage very well with leaves and constantly sway from side to side, just as a leaf would!

Australian WalkingStick

I-Spy!Extraosoma tiatatum

Can you see...?

A swaying walking stick mimicking the leaves?

A baby walking stick that looks like an ant?

A walking stick munching on some leaves?