October 2015

Trick or Treat! We will accept donations for the Columbus candy dish should your collection bags be overflowing.

Enjoy those clear blue skies while they last!

Best regards,

Dr. Dan Herms, Chair
(herms.2@osu.edu)

Dr. Carol Anelli,
Associate Chair
(anelli.7@osu.edu)

Graduate and Professional Student Survey Opens Oct. 28

On October 28, graduate students will receive an invitation to participate in Ohio State's survey of graduate and professional students. This survey is conducted every three years, and student feedback is used to improve student experience at Ohio State.

The survey includes questions on a variety of topics: program satisfaction, teaching and research experience, career development resources, quality of life, etc.

3MT Competition

The OSU Graduate School will be piloting the Three Minute Thesis (3MT) in February. Registration opens November 1st.

Find out more about the competition and see videos of past competition winners on the 3MT website.

Graduate Associate Teaching Award

The Graduate Associate Teaching Award (GATA) is the university's highest recognition of the exceptional teaching provided by graduate students at Ohio State. Award winners receive $1,500 and are recognized at the annual Graduate School awards reception.

Please visit the Graduate School website.

October 2015 Entomology Student News

Fall DeLong Competition

The fall DeLong Competition will be held on November 10 from 3-5 p.m. in Thorne 103 and the Bee Lab Conference Room. Anyone who would like to come and hear our students present is welcome to attend the competition.

All students who have not won a DeLong award in their current degree program are eligible. Only 10-minute talks can be presented. Please email Mary Gardiner your title (and submitted ESA abstract if you plan to use the funds for ESA) by Friday, October 30 to register. One winner will receive $500 in travel funds.
