

STUDENT NEWS

September 2014

Greetings!

As we are well into September, we hope everyone is beginning to settle into life at OSU. This university has so much to offer, not only academics, but cultural and social events. Please experience as much as you have available time.

Feel free to send us event or meeting announcements that you would like to see in future newsletter editions. We will do our best to include them.

Best regards,

Dr. Dan Herms (Chair, herms.2@osu.edu) and Dr. Carol Anelli (Associate Chair, Anelli.7@osu.edu)

Fall Undergraduate Research Week

Although the Fall Undergraduate Research Week (September 15-19) most likely will be history when this newsletter is released, spring competitions will be coming sooner than you think.

Visit the Undergraduate Research Office website for further details. Check on their learning opportunities for presentations and publications.

www.undergraduateresearch.osu.edu

Deep Woods BioBlitz

Thank you to all who participated or provided help in any way for the Deep Woods BioBlitz, which is an overnight camping event in Hocking County featuring terrestrial and stream ecosystems. The event was a huge success and greatly enjoyed by all. If you did not attend, please keep us in mind for future events.

2014 Fall Events

Ohio Valley Entomological Association Student Paper Competition

October 31

Borlaug Fellows Apps Due

November 10

ESA Annual Meeting

November 16-19

Columbus graduate students, please be reminded that mailboxes are located in 216 Kottman Hall and should be checked regularly.

Deep Woods BioBlitz

OVEA Student Paper Competition

The Ohio Valley Entomological Association (OVEA) announces the Student Paper Competition for 2014 which will be held at the Ohio Union on October 31. Visit the OVEA website at <http://extension.entm.purdue.edu/OVEA/> for more details.

Borlaug Graduate Research Grant

Purdue University's Center for Global Food Security is accepting applications for the 2014 Borlaug Fellows in Global Food Security program. The application deadline is November 10th. For further information, visit <http://www.purdue.edu/borlaugfellows>.

ESA Mixer

Mark your calendar for the OSU Mixer.

Date: Monday, November 17, 2014

Time: 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Location: Doubletree Portland (Holladay Room)

2015 Triplehorn Challenge

The 2015 Triplehorn Challenge is a friendly competition to showcase entomological collection and presentation skills in one of three divisions: scientific reference collection, still art, and timed tournament. The event is part of the 2015 NCB-ESA meeting (May 31-June 3, 2015) in Manhattan, Kansas.

Updated Graduate School Handbook

The Graduate School Handbook has been updated and is available at <http://gradsch.osu.edu>.

Research Commons

Research Commons (at the University Libraries) aims to connect researchers, including graduate students to each other and to resources and services supporting research. Please visit the website for a schedule of workshops and lectures.

<https://library.osu.edu/researchcommons/>

Imagination is more important than knowledge.

Albert Einstein, On Science

2015 Spring Events

Tripplehorn Challenge

May 31-June 3,

2014 Farm Science Review