September 2015

September has passed in a flash. Autumn sounds and sights are beginning to take hold. The season is a buzz of change.

Take time to observe and reflect. Life passes in a hurry.

Best regards,

Dr. Dan Herms, Chair
(herms.2@osu.edu)

Dr. Carol Anelli,
Associate Chair
(anelli.7@osu.edu)

OVEA News

The 2015 Ohio Valley Entomological Association meeting will take place on October 23 at the University of Kentucky in the E. S. Good Barn.

Undergraduate and graduate students should contact Travis Calkins (EGSA President) or Liu Yang (OVEA Past President) for information on OVEA.

ESA Minneapolis 2015

Students planning to attend the annual ESA meeting who have not signed up to volunteer may still do so as a an "on call volunteer" at this link:

<http://www.volunteerspot.com/group/11169866200106>

Additional spots and last-minute volunteer opportunities often become available.

September 2015 Entomology Student News

New Study Abroad Opportunity in Entomology for May 2016

Emerging Arthropods, Pathogens and Challenges in Vector Biology – Mexico

(ENTMLGY 5797) will familiarize students with some of the emerging, arthropod-based diseases in the vicinity of Xalapa, Veracruz, Mexico, and how the emerging challenges of global climate change and insecticide resistance affect the distribution of and complicate efforts to control these diseases.

Students will have comprehensive field experiences in Veracruz aimed at collecting and identifying arthropod vectors, and laboratory experiences in Ohio aimed at identifying genes for pathogens and insecticide resistance in the field-collected arthropods. Please contact Dr. Peter Piermarini in Entomology (piermarini.1@osu.edu) for more details.
